

Due DILLigence Productions LLC

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

June 21, 2017

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter shall serve as confirmation of our professional relationship to Jennifer Hall and MatchKey Consulting, along with an endorsement of her professional services. We do so because Ms. Hall has been instrumental in assisting our team in making connections with financing and film industry professionals interested in furthering the development of the film industry in the state of Georgia.

Ms. Hall has gone beyond standard business practices in assisting us. Through her efforts, we have been introduced to legitimate resources in banking and finance. Moreover, her extensive roster of professional industry contacts with above and below the line relationships (as well as her extensive banking relationships) have put Ms. Hall in a valued position to “connect the dots” and aid our team in connecting with resources vital to developing, producing and distributing our independent media products.

This is how we feel about Ms. Hall and her services. We use a familiar reference here as a show of our true kinship and appreciation:

Plain and simple, Jennifer cares, and she opens doors. She understands and is sensitive to the challenges that filmmakers and those working in the entertainment industry face on a daily basis. Jennifer provides the kind of support that independent filmmakers require to accomplish their goals and to succeed. She has a personal knowledge and understanding of the industry and she uses that to tailor her service. Bottom line, our team believes she is literally helping us make our lifelong dreams come true.

Ms. Hall comes into this business with a heart filled with determination to “do good” and be of service to those in the film world. She has a desire to build the Atlanta film community by matching filmmakers inside and outside of Georgia to local resources and she is great at what she does!

We at Due DILLigence wholeheartedly endorse Jennifer Hall and MatchKey Consulting, and highly recommend her professional services.

Sincerely,

Heidi Dill and Christopher Dill
Due DILLigence Productions, LLC
Owners

A Los Angeles Based Production Company